Humfrey, designers Melinda Trembly and Shari Eynon, and office assistant Ginger Anderson. The even was catered by Shannon's long time family friend Chef Norbert Schulz, previous owner of Norbert's and Brigitte's restaurant, who now runs his own catering business. Wine from Consilience tasting room was served to guests and family.

The open house included exhibits of layouts and designs of Shannon's work including The Montecito Inn where the redesigned fifty two guest rooms and Paso Robles pieces from her abstract expressionism collection.
